

JAMES AND HAYLEY'S WISH LIST:

Knoll 'Womb' chair by Eero Saarinen from De De Ce. Falling Water – Yeoman's Bay by Joshua Yeldham from Art House Gallery. 'Oak' light by Ross Gardam from Stylecraft. 'Cleo' pendant from Mark Douglass Design. 'Palermo' rug, in Biscuit from Robyn Cosgrove. Selected porcelain by Malcolm Greenwood.

JAMES & HAYLEY BAILLIE
(hoteliers, owners of Baillie Lodges)

How would you describe your aesthetic as a couple? Contemporary, organic, celebrating a sense of place.
What's your approach to acquiring items for your home? Our approach is planned, although it's often defined by compromise of our own opinions and style. We both share a passion for Australian design. Personal and eclectic touches come from our joint love of travel, translating to great stories to tell!
What are you working on? The opportunity to redefine Longitude 131° luxury wilderness camp at Uluru.
How will you be celebrating this holiday season? On Lord Howe Island with our four sons and Hayley's extended family – surfing, diving, exploring and chilling out in one of the world's last untouched paradises.
If money was no object, what would you give each other? We'd share a Joshua Yeldham landscape painting of the Pittwater-Kuring-gai area, which we are lucky enough to call home.